

Assam Forum GB

---

London, 12 Dec 2018.

Schedule of Fees

A. Background

1. This document is revision 1.1 dated 12 Dec 2018, of the Schedule of Fees chargeable by the AFGB (hereafter, “forum”), provisioned through Amendment 1 of 2018 of the AFGB Constitution. This document remains in force till superseded by a subsequent revision issued by the forum’s Treasurer or Executive Committee.
2. The Financial Calendar of the forum runs from January till December (article 5.2, AFGB Constitution)

B. Detail

Fees and charges may apply to forum members and non-members as tabulated below.

ID	Charge Title	Charge Description	Amount
1	Membership	Annual subscription payable each year, by end of the forum’s financial year. Student members exempt. (Note 1)	£ 10.00
2	Conference Fee	Conference Fee Contribution payable per conference. Student members and invited guests exempt. (Note 2)	£ 20.00
3	Voluntary Donation	Voluntary donations welcome anytime. (Notes 3, 4)	Suggest: £ 25.00 or higher

C. Notes

1. Exemptions for Student members only apply to full-time students when registered with the forum as Student Member. The forum reserves the right to ask for supporting evidence in the form of a valid Student ID card issued by an educational institution or an equivalent document to be determined by the Executive Committee.
2. Conference Fees - effective from 01 January, 2019 - are applied per conference and must be paid within 3 calendar months of the conference closing date.
3. Voluntary Donations are welcomed and gratefully received by the forum from members and non-members alike. Non-member (guest) donors are invited to become members, though there is no obligation to do so. There is no mandated requirement to donate.
4. The forum suggests a minimum £25.00 for a Voluntary Donation. That said, any amount - however great or small - would be gratefully received. The forum would like to stress that a donation to the forum does not automatically lead to conferring of any special privileges to the donor - however, the donor would unreservedly have the forum's deep gratitude for the act of generosity.

Yours truly,

Nironkush Rick Das
The Treasurer, AFGB.
